DECLARATION AND POWER OF ATTORNEY FOR REISSUE APPLICATION

I, Lawrence A. Lynn, declare that my residence, Post Office address and citizenship are as respectively stated below and that I verily believe that I am the original, first and sole inventor of the invention entitled "LUER-RECEIVING MEDICAL VALVE AND FLUID TRANSFER METHOD" described and claimed in Letters Patent No. 5,549,651 issued on August 27, 1996 from application No. 08/248,626, filed May 25, 1994, described and claimed in the reissue application no. 09/140,413 filed on August 26, 1998, and now allowed, and described and claimed in the attached continuation Reissue Application.

My invention as disclosed and claimed in the '646 application and in the '651 patent issued thereon relates to a valve structure in which a piston having a slit is compressed so as to induce the slit to open so that fluid may pass. More particularly, I have proposed a structure wherein pressure is applied to a portion of a piston, that is a compressive force is applied, so that due to the elastic behavior of the elastomeric piston, an opening of the slit will be induced.

After allowance of and after payment of the Issue Fee in my first Reissue Application No 09/140,413, I had occasion to again review my specification and the claims presented in that Reissue application. At that time, I discovered that whereas my disclosure details the characteristic of my invention that the piston and housing are sized and configured such that movement of the piston out of a distal position induces a flow of fluid out of a space adjacent the piston, in particular in a direction opposite to the direction of movement of the piston, that unique characteristic is not claimed in any of the claims presented in the original patent nor in the claims presented and allowed in my first Reissue application.

To correct the foregoing error, this reissue application adds independent claim 24 and dependent claims 25-28 to my '651 patent and its reissue. Specifically, new independent claim 24 details the foregoing unique characteristic of my disclosed piston and housing in subparagraph (e). Support for this feature of the invention may be found throughout the original specification and in particular in column 2 of my patent, lines 48-65 and more specifically lines 56-65. Support for this feature may also be found in column 6, lines 21-26, of my patent.

The errors corrected by this reissue application occurred without any deceptive intent whatsoever.

I hereby state that I have reviewed and understand the contents of the specification, including the claims, as amended by any amendments specifically referred to above. I further acknowledge the duty to disclose to the United States Patent and Trademark Office all information which is known to be material to patentability as defined in 37 C.F.R. §1.56.
